

VETERANS AND ACTIVE DUTY PERSONNEL. . .

What all soldiers have in common is the need to prepare for change and where their pathway will take them; a clear concise plan that will deliver a successful transition to the civilian ranks or lead to new opportunities within the armed forces.

CyberTex Institute of Technology (CIT) is the premier one stop veteran resource center outside your local command. CIT's guiding principal is to assist veterans in their training and identify viable employment. We have several training programs that lead to careers in the civilian industry.

The CIT Financial Aid staff will assist all veterans in filing for their educational benefits and other services regarding on how to file for disability and transfer of benefits to dependents. The CIT Career Services staff will assist those who are in transition to locate services and pathways to careers outside uniform services.
