Student Financial Aid Information
The purpose of student financial aid is to provide assistance to students who, without financial aid, would be unable to attend.

Need-Based and Non-Need Based Financial Assistance Programs
There are many different types of aid available. Some of these are grants, loans, scholarships, and Veterans Benefits.

Federal Pell Grant (PELL)
Pell grants are the foundation of federal student financial assistance to which aid from other federal and nonfederal sources might be added. These grants are generally awarded to undergraduate students and the award amounts can change yearly. Unlike loans, grants are not repaid unless, for example, you withdraw from school prior to the planned program completion date. All federal grants are awarded to students with financial need. The amount of your Federal Pell Grant depends on your cost of attendance, expected family contribution, enrollment status (full or part time) and whether you attend for a full academic year or less. For more information visit Federal Pell Grant.

Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant

A student whose parent or guardian was a member of the U.S. Armed Forces and died as a result of service performed in Iraq or Afghanistan after September 11, 2001 may be eligible to receive the Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant.

Additional Student Eligibility Requirements:
- Must be ineligible for a Federal Pell Grant due only to having less financial need than is required to receive Pell funds, and
- Be under 24 years old, or
- Enrolled in college at least part-time at the time of the parent's or guardian’s death.

The grant award is equal to the amount of a maximum Pell Grant for the award year – not to exceed the cost of attendance for that award year.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program

Student loans, unlike grants, are borrowed money (monies) that must be repaid with interest. Loans made through this program are referred to as Direct Loans. Eligible students and parents borrow directly from the U.S. Department of Education. For more information visit William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program. The three types of loans in the program are: Subsidized Stafford Loan, Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, and PLUS Loans. CyberTex Institute of Technology only participates in PLUS Loans.

PLUS Loans

Parents of dependent students can borrow from the PLUS Loans program. The terms and conditions of this type of loan include a requirement that the applicant not have an adverse credit history, a repayment period that begins on the date of the last disbursement of the loan and a fixed interest rate of 7.9 percent for the Direct Loan. For more information visit PLUS Loans.

Veteran's Education Benefits

The Department of Veterans Affairs administers a variety of education benefit programs. For more information, please visit: http://gibill.va.gov. Many Veterans and active duty personnel can qualify for more than one education benefits program, including the:

- Montgomery GI Bill - Active Duty (MGIB-AD) http://www.gibill.va.gov/benefits/montgomery_gibill/active_duty.html
- Montgomery GI Bill - Selected Reserve (MGIB-SR) http://www.gibill.va.gov/benefits/montgomery_gibill/selected_reserve.html
- Reserve Educational Assistance Program (REAP) http://www.gibill.va.gov/benefits/other_programs/reap.html
- Veterans Educational Assistance Program (VEAP)
Veterans need to be aware of a few special circumstances when completing the Free Application or Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). These circumstances include the student aid treatment of veteran’s education benefits and the definition of a veteran for student aid purposes.

- http://www.finaid.org/military/vedbenefits.phtml are usually treated as resources, not income, for federal student aid purposes. There are, however, a few exceptions.
- http://www.finaid.org/military/combatpay.phtml can be a source of confusion on the FAFSA.
- http://www.finaid.org/military/veteranstatus.phtml is not necessarily the same as veteran status for VA purposes.

CyberTex Institute of Technology is approved for some Veteran’s Educational Benefits for veterans, eligible dependents of deceased or disabled veterans and active status National Guard and Reserve personnel. Any student interested in this type of benefit must verify with the school representative that the school is eligible for benefits. You can find more information on the web by visiting www.gibill.va.gov.

Survivors’ and Dependents’ Educational Assistance Program (DEA)

Of particular interest is the Survivors’ and Dependents Education Assistance Program (DEA). It provides up to 45 months of education and training opportunities to eligible dependents of certain veterans. To be eligible, you must be the son, daughter, or spouse of a veteran who died or is permanently and totally disabled as the result of a service-connected disability, or who died while such a disability was in effect, or is MIA or captured in the line of duty by a hostile force, or is forcibly detained or interned in the line of duty by a foreign government or power. Sons and daughters must be between the ages of 18 and 26. Spousal benefits end 10 years from the date the VA finds the spouse as eligible or from the date of death of the veteran. To apply, complete VA Form 22-5490, Application for Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance. For more information, call 1-888-GIBILL-1 (1-888-442-4551).

Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents

Updated annually by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), the publication Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents contains information about education and training benefits available to veterans and eligible dependents. [VA Pamphlet 80-02-1, 114 pages, Stock Number 051-000-00225-3.] The booklet may be obtained free of charge from VA hospitals or regional offices. To request a copy, visit your nearest VA facility, call 1-800-827-1000 or write to Department of Veterans Affairs, Office of Public Affairs (80D), 810 Vermont Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20420. Workforce Investment Act (WIA) - TX
The Workforce Investment Act (WIA) combines federally-funded job training programs in Texas into a "workforce development" system where individuals can find a job or train for a new career.

The Workforce Investment Act (WIA) combines federally-funded job training programs in Illinois into a "workforce development" system where individuals can find a job or train for a new career.

Services are provided through the state's one-stop delivery system, Texas Workforce Centers. Individuals who wish to apply for available training programs, or obtain other services, should report to the nearest Texas Workforce Center for assistance.

While the employment services and training programs available in each Texas Workforce Center may be somewhat different, they reflect the opportunities and needs of the Local Workforce Investment Area (or "LWIA"), and are developed by a Local Workforce Investment Board.

Services Available
WIA establishes three basic levels of employment and training services to eligible individuals. All adults, age 18 or older, are eligible to receive "core services". Additional "intensive services" are available to unemployed individuals who have been unable to obtain jobs through core services and those who are employed but need additional training services to reach self-sufficiency. "Training services" are also available for those who meet intensive services eligibility but were unable to find employment through those services.

Core Services (available to all adults age 18 years or older):
- Job search and placement assistance (including career counseling)
- Labor market information (which identifies job vacancies; skills needed for in-demand jobs; and local, regional, and national employment trends)
- Initial assessment of skills and needs
- Information about and costs for local training providers
- Follow-up services to help customers keep their jobs once they are placed Intensive Services (available to eligible adults who have been unable to find work through core services, or need additional training to reach self-sufficiency):

- Comprehensive assessments
- Development of individual employment plans
- Group and individual counseling
- Case management
- Short-term prevocational service
- Out-of-area job search assistance, or relocation assistance
- Internships, literacy activities

Training Services (for those who have received "intensive services" but are still unable to find employment):

- Occupational skills training
- On-the-job training
- Cooperative education programs, and private sector training programs
- Job readiness training
- Adult education and literacy activities
- Customized employer training

Dislocated Worker and Youth Services

To be eligible for the dislocated worker program, a person must have received a lay-off notice or have been laid off due to a company closure or mass layoff. Workers may also be eligible if they are currently unemployed and are unlikely to return to their prior occupation due to economic conditions in that industry.

To be eligible for the youth program, a person must be between the ages of 14 and 21, have low income, and have a substantial barrier to employment such as: deficient in basic literacy skills, school dropout, homeless, a runaway or a foster child, pregnant or parenting, an offender, or be an individual who requires additional assistance to complete an educational program, or to secure and hold employment.

Services include:

- Tutoring, mentoring, study skills training, and instruction leading to completion of secondary school
- Alternative school services
- Paid and unpaid work experience (such as internships and job shadowing)
- Occupational skills training
- Leadership development
- Supportive services
- Guidance counseling
- Follow-up services

Applications for federal aid programs are made by completing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) (www.fafsa.ed.gov) which collects your family’s income and asset information. If you have any difficulty in accessing or understanding the FAFSA, you may make an appointment at any of our schools to have assistance in filling out the FAFSA.

Important!

Know your deadlines.
Use the School Code Search.
Verification. We may be asked by the Department of Education for additional, supporting information regarding your FAFSA. We will not be able to process your application without any requested documentation.

Post-FAFSA
1. Your FAFSA will be analyzed and assigned an Eligibility Index Number (EFC) which stands for Estimated Family Contribution.
2. You will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR).
3. A School Student Information Record (ISIR) will be sent to the schools you selected.

Eligibility Index Number
Financial need is determined by an annual, congressionally approved formula applied for all financial aid applicants. To determine financial need, an index is created based upon facts about you and your family’s income and assets; the size of your family; number of family members attending post-secondary school(s); and any unusual circumstances or financial hardships specific to you. This index is used to determine your financial aid assistance in meeting the cost of attending a post-secondary School.

Determining Financial Need
Financial need = Cost of Going to School less your < Expected Family Contribution >.
- Cost of Going to School is tuition, fees, books, supplies, equipment, and other educational costs.
- Expected Family Contribution is the amount that is determined to be your family’s contribution to your education.

Pell Grants
Pell Grants are awarded based upon financial eligibility determined by your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (www.fafsa.ed.gov). To become eligible and to maintain eligibility, a student must be enrolled and meet or exceed satisfactory academic progress (SAP), including attendance minimums.

Federal Direct Stafford Loan
The amount of this loan, in combination with other financial aid, cannot exceed the cost of attendance as determined by the School.

CIT Policy of Clock Hour Programs and Definition of Academic Year

Academic Programs and Academic Year

All clock hour certificate programs must have an academic year with a minimum length of 15 weeks and 600 clock hours, in order for students to be eligible to receive federal financial aid. Students considered attending full time if they attend classes at least 20 hours per week. The following programs at CyberTex Institute are equal to or exceed these minimums:

Definition of an Academic Year in hours = 900 clock hours and 30 weeks.

Vocational Nursing Program is a total of 1706 clock hours. 68 weeks
Medical Assistant Program is a total of 740 clock hours and 37 weeks
Network Engineer Program is a total of 750 clock hours and 37 weeks

Students enrolled in the Vocational Nursing Program will complete two academic years for financial aid. For Direct loans students may receive up to two academic years.

Students enrolled in the Medical Assistant program that is 740 clock hours will complete less than a full academic year. The financial aid for these students will be pro-rated per federal guidelines based upon the number of clock hours (740 clock hours) in the program. 740 hours/900 clock hours

Students enrolled in the Network Engineer program that is 750 clock hours will complete less than a full academic year. The financial aid for these students will be pro-rated per federal guidelines based upon the number of clock hours (750 clock hours) in the program. 750 clock hours/900 clock hours

Please visit the financial aid office if you have any questions. The doors are always open.

Educational Costs

Defining Estimated Cost of Attendance
Cost of Attendance (COA) is an average figure to determine your financial aid eligibility. It includes estimates of standard expenses such as tuition, fees, textbooks, testing, supplies, room, board, and personal expenses such as unreimbursed medical/dental expenses, clothing, and transportation.

Criteria for Selecting Recipients and Determining Amount of Award

Expected Family Contribution

The Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is a measure of your family’s financial strength and is calculated according to a formula established by law. Your family’s income, family size, and the number of individuals in your family who will attend college during the year are all considered.

The information you report on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or your FAFSA4caster is used to calculate your EFC. Schools use EFC to determine your federal student aid eligibility and financial aid award.

For more information, please visit: Funding Education Beyond High School: The Guide to Federal Student Aid.

Determining Independent Student Status

If you can answer No to all of the following questions, you are considered a dependent student on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA):

- Were you born before January 1, 1989?
- As of today are you married?
- At the beginning of the 2012-2013 school year, will you be working on a master's or doctorate program (such as an MA, MBA, MD, JD, PhD, EdD, or graduate certificate, etc.)?
• Are you currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training?
• Are you a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces?
• Do you have children who will receive more than half of their support from you between July 1, 2012 and June 30, 2013?
• Do you have dependents (other than your children or spouse) who live with you and who receive more than half of their support from you, now and through June 30, 2013?
• At any time since you turned age 13, were both your parents deceased, were you in foster care or were you a dependent or ward of the court?
• As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, are you or were you an emancipated minor?
• As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, are you or were you in legal guardianship?
• At any time on or after July 1, 2011, did your high school or school district homeless liaison determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless?
• At any time on or after July 1, 2011, did the director of an emergency shelter or transitional housing program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless?
• At any time on or after July 1, 2011, did the director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless?

If you are considered a dependent student, your parents must answer the parental questions on the FAFSA.

If you can answer Yes to any of the questions above, you are considered an independent student and information about your parents is not required on the FAFSA.

If you have a special circumstance that prevents you from providing parental information you may be able to submit your FAFSA. However, your FAFSA will be incomplete. You must contact the financial office at your college and provide them with documentation to verify your situation.

Student Eligibility Requirements
The school does not discriminate in its employment, admission, instruction, or graduation policies on the basis of sex, age, race, color, religion, or ethnic origin nor does it recruit students already attending or admitted to another school offering similar programs of study.

Note: Students enrolling with “Ability to Benefit” do not have access to Financial Aid.

Frequency of Disbursements
When financial aid is awarded, it is awarded for the academic year. The financial aid award is required to be split equally between two parts of the academic year. Financial aid is paid to a student’s account when the following conditions are met. Once determined, Credit Balances are issued by check to the student’s address on file and mailed via USPS.

1. The student is determined to be eligible and is awarded.
2. Loan funds have been received from the lender.
3. The student has achieved the appropriate number of hours.
4. The student is determined to be maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress.
5. The disbursement date for the term has been reached.

CyberTex Institute of Technology continues to release funds throughout the term to student accounts as students are awarded and as funds arrive from the lenders.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Students are required to maintain satisfactory academic progress throughout their training to be in compliance with School policy and to remain eligible for HEA, Title IV federal student financial assistance. Satisfactory academic progress is measured in both quantitative terms (attendance), as well as qualitative terms (academics/grades). Students must meet the school’s attendance standard and the academic standard on a cumulative basis (start date to evaluation date) to maintain eligibility for federal student financial assistance funds unless the student is on “Financial Aid Warning” or “Probation” as defined in this policy.

Attendance Standard

Students must attend at least 75% of the hours they are scheduled to attend based on the student’s enrollment agreement. A student’s attendance pace is determined by the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Cumulative clock hours of actual attendance as of the evaluation date}}{\text{Cumulative clock hours of scheduled attendance as of the evaluation date}}$$

Example: A student who is enrolled for 30 clock hours per week for 20 weeks would have a cumulative scheduled attendance of 600 clock hours. If the student attended 450 of the 600 scheduled hours, his/her attendance pace would be 75.0% (450/600) and would be meeting the attendance requirement of this policy.

Academic Standard

All theory, practical, and lab/clinic exams will be graded using the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>90% - 100%</td>
<td>Excellent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>80% - 89%</td>
<td>Above Average</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>70% - 79%</td>
<td>Satisfactory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>0% - 70%</td>
<td>Unsatisfactory</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Students must maintain an academic average of at least 70% (C) or higher on a cumulative basis as of the evaluation date to meet the academic standards of this policy and be considered as making satisfactory academic progress.

Review and Evaluation Periods

Student progress will be reviewed by the School at the end of each grading period to identify students who may be at risk regarding satisfactory academic progress. At risk students will be advised regarding efforts to improve progress. Formal satisfactory academic progress evaluations, which determine continuing eligibility for federal student aid, will be performed at the end of each financial aid payment period. Students who meet the attendance and academic standards described herein will be considered to be making satisfactory academic progress until the next scheduled evaluation.

“Financial Aid Warning” and “Probation”

Financial Aid Warning: The school evaluates Satisfactory Academic Progress at the end of each payment period. If a student falls below a 70% (Unsatisfactory Performance) or if the student is not completing the required amount of hours to keep Pace with the requirements for graduation within the 150% time frame; the student will be placed on financial aid warning for one payment period. If they are still not meeting SAP at the end of the warning period, the student maybe placed on Financial Aid Probation. (See “Financial Aid Probation” below.) A student who is put on a Financial Aid Warning can continue to receive Title IV aid for the next payment period after they receive the warning status. The status will be conferred automatically without the student appealing their SAP status. If the student does not make SAP at the end of the financial aid warning period, they lose their financial aid eligibility. The student has the opportunity to have their financial aid eligibility reinstated by appealing the decision and being placed on Financial Aid Probation.

Financial Aid Probation: When the student on Financial Aid Warning does not make SAP at the end of the next payment period, the student is now informed that they can appeal and must win the appeal to be placed on Financial Aid Probation. The student must advise the school as to why his/her grades have fallen below SAP and devise a plan to improve grades during the next payment period. A plan must be developed to assist a student to achieve success in the coming payment period.

Reinstatements
Generally, most students who enroll in the school are considered to be making satisfactory academic progress during their initial evaluation period. Students who are returning to school after a temporary interruption are reinstated under the same SAP status as they had prior to their departure.

Appeals
A student may file an appeal due to a death in the family, illness, or other serious reasons. The appeal must be in writing to the Dean explaining what caused the problem. The student would have to submit how circumstances have changed that will allow him/her to attain satisfactory academic progress once the probationary period is over.

The student will receive a written decision as to the status of their appeal and any SAP plan that may be attached to it. Students on financial aid probation, who fail to make satisfactory academic progress by the next payment period, will lose their financial aid eligibility.

Incomplete and Repeat Subjects
Under the Texas Education Code, Section 132.061(f) a student who is obligated for the full tuition may request a grade of “incomplete” if the student withdraws for an appropriate reason unrelated to the student’s academic status. Student are allowed to receive a grade of incomplete to re-enroll in the program during the 12-month period following the date the student withdraws and complete those incomplete subjects without payment of additional tuition.

If a student repeats a course only the highest grade will be counted and previous grades will be deleted. The previous grades will be excluded when considering the qualitative progress standard, but the credits will be counted when determining the Pace SAP standard.

If a student receives a “C” grade or better, and the student retakes the course to obtain a better grade, that course can be counted for the enrollment period. However, a full-time student may only take one repetition of a previously passed course or any repetition of a previously passed course due to the student failing other coursework and still receive title IV aid.

If a student receives a “D” grade in a course and retakes the course so he/she may obtain credit for the course, the course is counted for the enrollment period and may be counted for financial aid purposes.

Non-Credit and Remedial Courses
Noncredit and remedial courses do not apply to this School. Therefore, these items have no effect upon the school's satisfactory progress standards.

Reinstatement of Federal Financial Aid
Federal student financial aid is suspended when a student is considered as not making satisfactory academic progress. Aid will be reinstated when the student improves his/her attendance or academics to a level such that minimum standards have been met. If the student begins a payment period not making satisfactory academic progress, but reverses that designation before the end of that payment period, the student will be eligible for federal aid for that payment period.

Evaluation Periods
Student progress will be reviewed by the School at the end of each grading period. Evaluations will determine if the student has met the minimum requirements for satisfactory academic progress. The frequency of evaluations ensures that students have ample opportunity to meet both the attendance and academic progress requirements of at least one evaluation by midpoint in the course.

Necessity for Repaying Loans
Student loans are real loans and it is imperative that you pay them back. The following is directly from the Department of Education’s website:
http://studentaid.ed.gov/PORTALSWebApp/students/english/repaying.jsp#default

If you default, it means you failed to make payments on your student loan according to the terms of your promissory note, the binding legal document you signed at the time you took out your loan. In other words, you failed to make your loan payments as scheduled. Your school, the financial School that made or owns your loan, your loan guarantor, and the federal government all can take action to recover the money you owe. Here are some consequences of default:

- National credit bureaus can be notified of your default, which will harm your credit rating, making it hard to buy a car or a house.
- You will be ineligible for additional federal student aid if you decide to return to school.
- Loan payments can be deducted from your paycheck.
- State and federal income tax refunds can be withheld and applied toward the amount you owe.
• You will have to pay late fees and collection costs on top of what you already owe
• You can be sued.

For more information and to learn what actions to take if you default on your loans see the Department of Education’s Default Resolution Group Web site.

Privacy of Records-Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

Family Policy Compliance Office (FPCO) Home
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education.

FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children’s education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are "eligible students."

Parents or eligible students have the right to inspect and review the student's education records maintained by the school. Schools are not required to provide copies of records unless, for reasons such as great distance, it is impossible for parents or eligible students to review the records. Schools may charge a fee for copies.

Parents or eligible students have the right to request that a school correct records which they believe to be inaccurate or misleading. If the school decides not to amend the record, the parent or eligible student then has the right to a formal hearing. After the hearing, if the school still decides not to amend the record, the parent or eligible student has the right to place a statement with the record setting forth his or her view about the contested information.

Generally, schools must have written permission from the parent or eligible student in order to release any information from a student's education record. However, FERPA allows schools to disclose those records, without consent, to the following parties or under the following conditions (34 CFR § 99.31):

- School officials with legitimate educational interest;
- Other schools to which a student is transferring;
- Specified officials for audit or evaluation purposes;
- Appropriate parties in connection with financial aid to a student;
- Organizations conducting certain studies for or on behalf of the school;
- Accrediting organizations;
- To comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena;
- Appropriate officials in cases of health and safety emergencies; and
- State and local authorities, within a juvenile justice system, pursuant to specific State law.

Schools may disclose, without consent, "directory" information such as a student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, honors and awards, and dates of attendance. However, schools must tell parents and eligible students about directory information and allow parents and eligible students a reasonable amount of time to request that the school not disclose directory information about them. Schools must notify parents and eligible students annually of their rights under FERPA. The actual means of notification (special letter, inclusion in a PTA bulletin, student handbook, or newspaper article) is left to the discretion of each school.

For additional information, you may call 1-800-USA-LEARN (1-800-872-5327) (voice). Individuals who use TDD may call 1-800-437-0833.

Recordkeeping

Source: Federal Student Aid Handbook, Volume II, Privacy of Student Information (FERPA Rules)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) sets limits on the disclosure of personally identifiable information from school records, and defines the rights of the student to review the records and request a change to the records.

With exceptions such as those noted in this section, FERPA generally gives postsecondary students the right:

- to review their education records,
- to seek to amend inaccurate information in their records, and
- to provide consent for the disclosure of their records.
These rules apply to all education records the school keeps, including admissions records (only if the student was admitted) and academic records as well as any financial aid records pertaining to the student. Therefore, the financial aid office is not usually the office that develops the school’s FERPA policy or the notification to students and parents, although it may have some input.

Student’s & parents’ rights to review educational records
A school must provide a student with an opportunity to review his or her education records within 45 days of the receipt of a request. A school is required to provide the student with copies of education records, or make other arrangements to provide the student access to the records, if a failure to do so would effectively prevent the student from obtaining access to the records. While the school may not charge a fee for retrieving the records, it may charge a reasonable fee for providing copies of the records, provided that the fee would not prevent access to student records.

While the rights under FERPA have transferred from a student’s parents to the student when the student attends a postsecondary School, FERPA does permit a school to disclose a student’s education records to his or her parents if the student is a dependent student under IRS laws.

Note that the IRS definition of a dependent is quite different from that of a dependent student for FSA purposes. For IRS purposes, students are dependent if they are listed as dependents on their parent’s income tax returns. (If the student is a dependent as defined by the IRS, disclosure may be made to either parent, regardless of which parent claims the student as a dependent.)

Prior written consent to disclose the student’s records
Except, under one of the special conditions described in this section, a student must provide written consent before an education agency or school may disclose personally identifiable information from the student’s education records. The written consent must—

- state the purpose of the disclosure,
- specify the records that may be disclosed,
- identify the party or class of parties to whom the disclosure may be made, and,
- be signed and dated.

If the consent is given electronically, the consent form must—

- identify and authenticate a particular person as the source of the electronic consent, and
- indicate that person’s approval of the information contained in the electronic consent.

The FERPA regulations include a list of exceptions where the school may disclose personally identifiable information from the student’s file without prior written consent. Several of these allowable disclosures are of particular interest to the financial aid office, since they are likely to involve the release of financial aid records.

Disclosures to school officials
Some of these disclosures may be made to officials at your school or another school who have a legitimate interest in the student’s records. Typically, these might be admissions records, grades, or financial aid records.
Disclosure may be made to:

- other school officials, including teachers, within the school whom the school has determined to have legitimate educational interests.
- to officials of another postsecondary school or school system, where the student receives services or seeks to enroll.

If your school routinely discloses information to other schools where the student seeks to enroll, it should include this information in its annual privacy notification to students. If this information is not in the annual notice, the school must make a reasonable attempt to notify the student at the student’s last known address.

Disclosures to government agencies

Disclosures may be made to authorized representatives of the U.S. Department of Education for audit, evaluation, and enforcement purposes. “Authorized representatives” includes employees of the Department—such as employees of the Office of Federal Student Aid, the Office of Postsecondary Education, the Office for Civil Rights, and the National Center for Education Statistics—as well as firms that are under contract to the Department to perform certain administrative functions or studies.

In addition, disclosure may be made if it is in connection with financial aid that the student has received or applied for. Such a disclosure may only be made if the student information is needed to determine the amount of the aid, the conditions for the aid, the student’s eligibility for the aid, or to enforce the terms or conditions of the aid.

A school may release personally identifiable information on an F, J, or M nonimmigrant student to U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (formerly the Immigration and Naturalization Service) in compliance with the Student Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) program without violating FERPA.

Disclosures in response to subpoenas or court orders

FERPA permits schools to disclose education records, without the student’s consent, in order to comply with a lawfully issued subpoena or court order.

In most cases, the school must make a reasonable effort to notify the student who is the subject of the subpoena or court order before complying, so that the student may seek protective action. However, the school does not have to notify the student if the court or issuing agency has prohibited such disclosure.

A school may also disclose information from education records, without the consent or knowledge of the student, to representatives of the U.S. Department of Justice in response to an ex parte order issued in connection with the investigation of crimes of terrorism.

Documenting the disclosure of information

Except as noted below, school must keep a record of each request for access and each disclosure of personally identifiable student information. The record must identify the parties who requested the information and their legitimate interest in the information. This record must be maintained in the student’s file as long as the educational records themselves are kept.

FERPA Responsibilities and Student Rights

A school is required to—
Annually notify students of their rights under FERPA;
Include in that notification the procedure for exercising their rights to inspect and review education records; and Maintain a record in a student’s file listing to whom personally identifiable information was disclosed and the legitimate interests the parties had in obtaining the information (does not apply to school officials with a legitimate educational interest or to directory information).

Student has the right to—
- Inspect and review any education records pertaining to the student;
- Request an amendment to his/her records; and
- Request a hearing (if the request for an amendment is denied) to challenge the contents of the education records, on the grounds that the records are inaccurate, misleading, or violate the rights of the student.

Rights under FERPA
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:
- The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the School receives a request for access.

A student should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The School official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the School official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

- The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA.

A student who wishes to ask the School to amend a record should write the School official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed.

If the School decides not to amend the record as requested, the School will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student’s right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

- The right to provide written consent before the School discloses personally identifiable information from the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

The School discloses education records without a student’s prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the School in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the School has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of using School employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the School.

- The student has the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the School to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

  Family Policy Compliance Office
  U.S. Department of Education
  400 Maryland Avenue, SW
  Washington, DC 20202-5901

Entrance Counseling for Student Loan Borrowers
Your guaranteed student loan is a serious obligation; therefore, it is important that you understand your rights and responsibilities involved in this transaction. Your responsibilities are summarized below:

GRADUATION RATES

COHORT PERIOD 09/01/13 TO 08/31/14

A Graduation Rate calculation is based on a group of students who did not attend another college or university prior to attending CyberTex Institute of Technology. These students enrolled from September 1, 2013-August 31, 2014 and completed their program within 150% of the program's length. In addition, certain students are excluded from the rate above in accordance with National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) guidelines and as reported to the Integrated Postsecondary Student Data System (IPEDS).

The chart below reflects a breakdown of the percentage of students, students contained in the graduation rate calculation, by:
- Gender
- Race/ethnicity
- Federal grant recipients
- Subsidized federal loan recipients who did not receive federal grants
- Non-federal aid recipients (students who did not receive a subsidized federal loan or federal grant)

Title IX at the CyberTex Institute of Technology

POLICY
It is the policy of the CyberTex Institute of Technology (CIT) to prohibit discrimination on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, national origin, race, religion, sex, or veteran's status in regard to the administration of all campus programs, services and activities including intercollegiate athletics, and the admission of students, employment actions, or other sponsored activities.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and certain other federal and state laws prohibit discrimination on these bases in education programs and activities operated by CIT, which complies with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1681, et seq., and its enabling regulations (see, e.g., 34 C.F.R. §§ 106, 668.46). This policy applies to all members of the CIT community, including students, faculty, and administrators as well as third-parties (e.g., vendors and invitees). Discrimination or harassment on those bases listed above is not tolerated at our institution. Additional information this policy is available to students, faculty, and staff from CIT’s designated Title IX Coordinator (see below for contact information).

PURPOSE
All campuses of CIT seek to foster a collegial atmosphere where students are nurtured and educated through close faculty-student relationships, student camaraderie, and individualized attention. Discrimination or harassment of any kind is prohibited. CIT will undertake efforts to resolve complaints of identified discrimination in a timely, effective, and fair manner which respects the rights of all parties involved to the maximum extent possible. CIT will also take necessary action (including, for example, appropriate accommodations) to ensure instances of discrimination do not recur.

REPORTING HARRASSMENT OR DISCRIMINATION
If you believe you have been harassed or discriminated against (or have been a bystander or witness to an instance of perceived harassment or discrimination), CIT encourages you to promptly contact its designated Title IX Coordinator, Ali Azam, by Telephone: (512) 454-6116 or email: ali.azam@cybertex.edu

When CIT receives notice of or a complaint regarding harassment, it will take prompt and effective corrective action reasonably calculated to stop the harassment, prevent its recurrence, and as appropriate, remedy its effects. This may or will include conducting an appropriate investigation.

DEFINITIONS

Discrimination and Harassment
Title IX, and its implementing regulations, prohibit discrimination based on sex, including sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature and can include sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct. Environmental harassment (sometimes referred to as hostile environment) is sexually harassing conduct that is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive to limit an individual’s ability to participate in or receive benefits, services, or opportunities at CIT. This can include persistent comments or jokes about an individual’s, sex; verbal behavior, including insults, remarks, epithets, or derogatory statements; nonverbal behavior, including a writing (including comments or photos transmitted via electronic means, such as on social media, email, or text message), inappropriate physical advances short of physical violence such as repeated and unwanted touching; and assault, including physical violence or the threat of physical violence.

CIT further prohibits the crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Dating violence is violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. Domestic violence is a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by (i) a current or former spouse/intimate partner of the victim, (ii) a person with whom the victim shares a child, (iii) a person who is (or was) cohabitating with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, (iv) a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction where the crime of violence occurred, or (v) any other person against an adult or youth victim protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction. Sexual assault is an offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI’s UCR program. Stalking is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (i) fear for her or her safety (or that of others) or (ii) to suffer substantial emotional distress.

Retaliation
Retaliation is any kind of reprisal, adverse action, or negative action taken against an individual because he or she has (i) complained about alleged discrimination or harassment as defined above, (ii) participated as a party or witness in an investigation relating to such allegations, or (iii) participated as a party or witness in a proceeding regarding such allegations. Retaliation can occur contemporaneously during the complaint process or subsequent to it, once the retaliator is aware of the recipient’s participation in the process. An individual is protected from retaliation even when the complaint at issue is ultimately found to lack merit, so long as the complaint was made in good faith.

CIT does not allow, nor tolerate any conduct by any CIT community member that may be regarded as retaliatory. Retaliation against any individual, whether said person submitted a complaint through the method described below, or for any other reason will not be tolerated.

Title IX Coordinator
CIT’s Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee is trained and knowledgeable about enforcement, compliance, communication, and implementation of CIT’s anti-harassment and anti-discrimination policy.
The Title IX Coordinator’s contact information is as follows:
Ali Azam, Title IX Coordinator
CIT Corp
Phone: (512) 454-6116
Email: ali.azam@cybertex.edu

CONFIDENTIALITY
CIT has independent obligations to report or investigate potential misconduct, even if a complainant does not wish to initiate an official process. Therefore, absolute confidentiality cannot be promised with respect to a complaint of discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, violence (i.e., dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking), or retaliation received either through CIT’s compliance phone number. CIT wishes, however, to create an environment in which legitimate complaints are encouraged, while also protecting the privacy of all involved in an investigation. Complaints about violations of these policies will therefore be handled in strict confidence, with facts made available only to those who need to know in order for CIT to promptly and thoroughly investigate and resolve the matter.

PROCEDURES & IMPLEMENTATION

Duty to Report Violations
Any member of the CIT community including students, faculty, employees, and third-parties have a duty to report violations of this policy where individuals know, or should know, of accusations or actions which violate CIT Policy and will notify the CIT’s Title IX Coordinator of such violations promptly.

Formal Investigation and Resolution of Discrimination, Harassment, or Retaliation Complaints Duty to Cooperate and Facilitate
All members of the CIT community are required to cooperate fully with any investigations of discrimination or harassment. A faculty member, staff member, or student who has relevant information and refuses to cooperate with an ongoing investigation may be subject to disciplinary action for, among other things, violations of the CIT Code of Conduct and/or insubordination.
Likewise, all CIT employees are required to ensure that complaints about discrimination, harassment, or retaliation are directed to the appropriate administrative office for evaluation and investigation. CIT is committed to conducting an inquiry that is thorough, prompt and impartial.

Complaint Process
Complaints concerning sexual harassment and/or sexual discrimination should be in writing and provided to the Title IX Coordinator (or verbally communicated to him/her). Complaints may be submitted via email: ali.azam@cybertex.edu. Phone: (512) 454-6116, or in person.

Complaints should be filed as soon as possible after the date of the alleged misconduct, and a written complaint is preferable.
A complaint, which must be submitted within the later of the following two dates: (a) thirty (30) days after the alleged misconduct; or,
(b) the end of the semester in which the alleged incident occurred. A complaint should include the following information:
a) Complainant’s full name, home address, email and telephone number.
b) Name of the person against whom the complaint was made, including job title or student status, if known.
c) The protected status that is the basis for the alleged discrimination, harassment, or retaliation based on the complainant’s gender.
d) A clear statement of the facts that constitute the alleged discrimination, harassment, act of violence, or retaliation, including dates on which the acts were committed and any information to identify witnesses.
e) Complainant should include the term and year of his/her most recent active employment, academic, or student status within the institute.
f) A student who is seeking admission to CIT should include the term and year in which he/she sought admission to the institute.
g) The full name, address, and telephone number of complainant’s advisor or supervisor, if any.
h) The specific harm that resulted from the alleged act and the remedy sought.
i) The complainant’s signature and the date on which the complaint was submitted.

While prompt reporting is expected, complaints older than 30 days will be processed. However, if more than 365 days have elapsed since the day of the complaint, the complaint may not be processed. Every effort is made to conduct a thorough and timely investigation. Several factors may impact CIT's ability to conduct a prompt investigation, including, but not limited to: the Complainant’s accessibility or unresponsiveness, witness availability or unresponsiveness, the number of witnesses, the timing of the investigation (i.e., if an investigation is being conducted at a time when students are taking final exams or on recess), etc.

Intake Interview
After receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee will meet with the Complainant as soon as possible, usually within one week, but not later than thirty (30) days after receipt. The Complainant must make himself/herself available to meet. The meeting will be an intake interview where the Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee will inform the Complainant about the investigation procedure and timeline. The Complainant may sign a formal complaint form at that time (under the above guidelines) if he/she has not already done so. A complaint will proceed even in the absence of a signed written complaint.

Complaints about Students, Faculty, Other Employees or Third Parties
Upon receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee, shall investigate the circumstances of the complaint. This investigation will include documented interviews of the Complainant, the person against whom the complaint is made, and witnesses (if any) with relevant knowledge (including, those who may be identified by the Complainant, the alleged perpetrator, or other witnesses). Further, the investigation will include a review of relevant documents and any other evidence. CIT encourages any Complainant, alleged perpetrator, or witness to preserve and maintain any evidence related to the complaint.

The Title IX Coordinator shall have thirty (30) days from the intake interview to complete the investigation of the event in question. Such thirty (30) days may be extended in the event that one of the following occurs:

• Availability or unavailability of a witness or relevant/material documents;
• Recalcitrance of a witness and/or any necessary party;
• Delay or other uncooperative actions of any necessary party;
• Numerosity of witnesses;
• Holidays and vacation periods; or
• Any other unforeseeable event/circumstance which impacts the investigation.

Generally speaking an investigation should take less than 60 calendar days following receipt of the complaint. This may not be practicable in every investigation and may vary depending on the complexity of the investigation and the severity and extent of the alleged misconduct or offense. The Title IX Coordinator shall report the findings of the investigation to a designated, impartial Fact Finder. The Fact Finder shall endeavor to issue a determination within fifteen day after receipt of the investigation file to determine and detail: (a) whether there is probable cause to believe an offense or misconduct (including, though not necessarily limited to a violation of CIT policy) occurred with respect to each allegation in the complaint, (b) a description of actions taken, if any, to prevent similar problems from occurring in the future, and (c) the proposed resolution of the complaint.

Preponderance of the Evidence
In making his/her determination, the Fact Finder shall observe a preponderance of the evidence standard. This means reaching a conclusion based upon all available facts and information as to whether one party’s evidence outweighs the evidence of the other.

Notice of Determination and Further Action
Both the Complainant (i.e., the individual who filed the complaint or the alleged target of the offense or misconduct) and the Respondent (i.e., the alleged perpetrator of the misconduct or offense), shall be informed of the Fact Finder’s decision within ten days of the conclusion of the deliberations. Please refer to policies regarding the confidentiality of this determination.

At the time of the receipt of this notice both parties will be informed of any actions or precautions, including, for example, any reasonable accommodations, that will be taken in response to the Fact Finder’s decision. Questions concerning these further actions should be addressed to the Title IX Coordinator.

Grade Appeals
CIT has a grade appeal process which is not circumvented by this policy. This procedure is not a substitute for a grade appeal. A grade appeal may be suspended until a determination has been made by the fact finder.

Discipline
Employees, faculty and students who violate CIT’s policies may be subject to disciplinary action. Individuals who retaliate against someone who files a complaint, or against a witness, representative, or advocate for a complainant, will be subject to further disciplinary action. Consistent with this Policy CIT will take prompt effective action to resolve any identified discrimination, and take steps to avoid a reoccurrence.

EXTERNAL REPORTING
Members of the CIT community are always subject to local, state, and federal laws, and nothing in these procedures is intended to limit or postpone the right of an individual to file a complaint or charge with appropriate federal, state, or local departments or agencies.
Among other options, students may contact the Office for Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education for inquiries concerning the application of Title IX as well as the implementation of its regulations. The Office for Civil Rights can be contacted using the following information:
